Location

2. "The Shkolla Fillore Barburlush occupies a building at Barburlush, Shkoder, which was built in 1945. The building has two floors. The school has three rooms.

Administration

3. "This school comes under the direct supervision of the Education Section of the People's Board of the Region of Shkoder, which has offices on Mr. Hasan Riza. The chairman of this section is Hamdi Leshaj, a member of the Labor Party. She teaches in a gymnasium.

4. "Every Albanian elementary school has two boards:

(a) The Kehilli Pedagogjik (Teachers' Board), composed of the teachers of the school, under the chairmanship of the director of the school. This board meets monthly to discuss the performance of each pupil and teacher.

(b) The Kehilli Prindarvet (Parents' Board), composed of six parents of pupils, under the chairmanship of the director of the school. This board meets monthly to discuss the progress of education at the school. The Parents' Board at this school does not have to supply the school with firewood; that is the responsibility of the Education Section of the Shkoder People's Board. Members of the Parents Board are elected at the beginning of each school year.

The minutes of the meetings of these two boards are forwarded to the Education Section of the People's Board and are open to inspectors from that section.
